Getting Started

Aliva Max International's Customer Referral Reward Program (CRRP) is designed to reward those customers who enjoy using the company's products and refer our Aliva products to their friends.

All customers of AMI are eligible to participate in this Customer Referral Reward Program. By simply committing to use the AMI products and placing your 2nd order at the wholesale price of $49.95 each, you are Qualified for the CRRP. To maintain CRRP Qualifications, you only need 1 new order per month through your website back office, for resale or for personal use. The Customer Referral Reward Program includes the following exciting benefits.

Retail Income

For those customers who have a home based business, small business or retail store, you can order product through your own back office at $49.95 and re-sell to others at the suggested retail price of $89.95, making a $40.00 Retail Commission.
